ISLAND NOTES.

Hilo, Hawaii, Oct. 14th.

D. Kamai, the newly elected Representative of Hilo district, gave a luau at his residence on the 8th instant. There were several hundred persons present to enjoy the feast. Great preparations had been made for it, quite a large number of ladies being present, and the parlors were beautifully decorated with evergreens. Several of the newly-elected gentlemen were present. Kamai was congratulated on his election and seemed happy over it.

On October 7th, at the residence of C. C. Kennedy, Waiakea, Hilo, by Rev. E. P. Baker, Mr. John Tosh was married to Miss Lizzie Milne, both of Scotland. The occasion was a very pleasing one. There were many Scotch songs sung, and some choice recitations. Before leaving all joined hands and sang the old familiar song, "Auld Lang Syne" in Scotch style. On the happy couple leaving for home they were pelted with beans for good luck. J. A. M.

It Is Said

That the planters will have a very interesting meeting; that it will be well attended; that gambling is on the increase; that an interesting case will probably come before a jury this week; that the Legislature will be in session two months; that the Hon. S. G. Wilder is the most popular man in the Kingdom; that the Volcano is very active; that the Marshal is a brick; that if certain facts leak out there will be a No. 1 sensation; that everybody is going to the W. C. T. U. concert Tuesday night; that one of the members of the Rifles has the longest moustache in town; that Theodore hopes to have one like it some day; that the opium case on Saturday was keenly fought on both sides; that money is scarce; that the band is much missed; that the Post Office was never in better order than at the present time; that one young man expects his girl by the Australia; that the Kaimiloa will not be sold this year; that M. McInerney is the proudest man in town when he stands viewing his new block of buildings; that Goldberg has got some splendid rubber coats; that several sugar plantations are in want of laborers; that the Vagrancy Act should be strictly enforced; that there will be a kona storm mahohe; that the Hawaiian planters are a fine body of men; that Signor Roselli has made many friends; that the Zealandia will bring exciting news from Samoa; that the Blue Ribbon League is doing a good work; that chapter two of "The Cruise of the Blunderbus" will be more interesting than the first; that there is a boom in the poetry market; that four marriages will shortly take place on Molokai; that the police question is getting stale; that lots of turkeys were eaten yesterday; that Julius is happy now the Peter Godeffroy has arrived.

H. B. M. S. Conquest.

H. B. M. S. Conquest, Captain Chas. L. Oxley, arrived off Koloa, Kauai, last Tuesday morning, and came to anchor about two miles from shore. While there she fired off her heavy guns, and at times the vessel was completely enveloped in smoke. The same evening she steered into Waimea harbor and dropped her anchor, near to where the steamer Mikahala usually anchors. She laid there through the night, and next morning proceeded to Hanalei, surprising the inhabitants of that place, and also startling them when they heard her big guns. On Thursday she left for Maui, and anchored off Kahului Friday at noon. A number of the officers went ashore and visited the different places of interest in and around Wailuku. The Conquest will reach Honolulu Tuesday morning.

Lost Overboard.

During the voyage of the bark Peter Godeffroy from Liverpool the second officer, Carl Shrader, a native of Halle, Germany, was washed overboard in a gale. This was to have been his last voyage with the vessel, as on her return he intended entering a navigating school in Germany. He was 24 years of age.
